First look at seven luxury hotels of the future

Check out these hot properties set to open next year.

From Paris to Palm Springs, these are the hotels you'll be talking about in 2023.

International consulting and communications company BPCM has put together seven of the hottest openings worldwide next year.

Le Grand Mazarin, Paris. (Opening Q1, 2023)

Le Grand Mazarin

Le Grand Mazarin

Located a stone's throw from the Seine in the Marais district, Le Grand Mazarin is housed within historic buildings that have been reimagined by famed architect Martin Brudnizki to create an ambiance both true to the area's cultural heritage and luxurious for the modern traveller.

The property has 50 rooms and 11 suites, 17th century-inspired décor, an all-day restaurant, lively bar and pool.
