It's coming to the end of another uncertain year, and whilst travel has been rocky, it hasn't stopped brands and developers from designing for the future and so the new year in sight comes with a whole host of highly anticipated hotel openings across the globe. From the world's first whole life net zero hotel in London, a new urban sanctuary in Manhattan designed by architect and designer Jean Michel Gathy, the expansion of multi award-winning Hotel Brooklyn to Leicester and a new 5-Star hotel in Le Marais, Paris, it is certain that there's lots to look forward to.

Le Grand Mazarin, a new 5-Star hotel in Le Marais, Paris - opening September 2022

After Crillon le Brave in Provence, Lou Pinet in Saint-Tropez and Le Coucou in Méribel, Maisons Pariente has chosen the heart of Le Marais for its new 5* hotel. Le Grand Mazarin is located in the heart of the action in a buzzing district that's bursting with creativity and constantly coming up with cutting-edge trends and avant-garde concepts. With its dream location on the corner of Rue des Archives and Rue de la Verrerie near Hotel de Ville, the collection's first city centre hotel embodies Le Marais' signature bold and cosmopolitan eclecticism.

Le Grand Mazarin is a place to meet and get together in a sophisticated setting that puts a playful spin on styles and periods with myriad influences. 61 quirky rooms and suites, a spectacular restaurant with all-day service, a chic yet enigmatic underground bar, the largest private pool in Le Marais... Maisons Pariente has created an exciting, flamboyant, unexpected and spectacular experience inspired by the Paris that the Parisians know and love. Maisons Pariente's new adventure showcases the brand's core values in Paris for the first time: a unique hotel legacy true to an exceptional site, excellent service, unforgettable emotions worth their weight in gold.
