

Travel Ski Resort guides Ski: Méribel, France - Telegraph Travel

The best hotels and chalets in Méribel from chic hotels to luxury lodges hidden in the trees

Staff are friendly and the food is good at Hotel Les Arolles

Follow By Telegraph Ski 5 NOVEMBER 2020 • 4:23PM

READ MORE

- 1 Highland ski resort calls for help to give Scottish ski trips the green light
06 Nov 2020
- 2 The 10 best ski resorts in America
06 Nov 2020
- 3 Why you should consider Scotland for a ski holiday this winter
06 Nov 2020
- 4 The 10 best French ski resorts
05 Nov 2020
- 5 The best apartments and hotels in Avoriaz for direct access to the slopes
05 Nov 2020

Expert guide to Méribel

Overview

Hotels

Restaurants

Après ski

Snow reports

Hotels

Hotel Le Mottaret

Opposite the piste in Mottaret, with modern bedrooms, a large lounge area and restaurant with valley views. The bar opens onto a sun terrace and there is a lively après scene.

Price: £

ROOMS FROM

£90^{pp/pn}

Check availability

Rates provided by Booking.com

Hotel Le Mottaret has a good après scene

Hotel Les Arolles

Although more modestly presented than its swishier counterparts in Méribel, Hotel Les Arolles lacks nothing in terms of warmth and welcome. Staff are friendly and this 52-room hotel is on the piste at the top of Mottaret. Food is good too, and there's a pool and sauna.

Price: ££

ROOMS FROM

£186 pp/pn

Check availability

Rates provided by Booking.com

Hotel Les Arolles is set on the piste at the top of Mottaret

Hôtel Le Kaïla

Méribel's swishest five-star hotel, with 42 rooms, two suites and a Nuxe spa with large pool, six treatment rooms, sauna, hammam and spectacular ice fountain.

Price: £££

ROOMS FROM

£605 pp/pn

Check availability

Rates provided by Booking.com

Hôtel Le Kailash is Meribel's swishest five-star hotel

Le Coucou

A chic, family-run hotel with 55 rooms and suites, a spa and two restaurants Le Coucou, which opened in 2019/20, is located on the piste opposite the resort's top-most hub of Rond-Pont at 1,600m, about 10 minutes drive from resort centre.

Price: £££

ROOMS FROM

£242 pp/pn

Check availability

Rates provided by Booking.com

Hotel Le Coucou is a family-run hotel with 55 rooms and suites

Le Refuge de la Traye

Above Méribel's satellite village of Les Allues, Refuge de la Traye open in 2019 after much anticipation. The refuge is made up of a cluster of buildings and only 19 guests at a time. Accommodation is swathed in sheepskin throws and high-thread-count sheets, it promises seclusion in highly-luxurious alpine style, along with cutting-edge spa treatments. Getting there entails a 20-minute ride up through the pretty pine forest above Les Allues in the cabin of an all-terrain electric snowcat with panoramic windows.

Price: £££

ROOMS FROM

£4,104 pp/pn

Check availability

Rates provided by Booking.com

Le Refuge de la Traye is made up of a cluster of buildings and only allows 19 guests at a time

Chalets and apartments

L'Hévana

Premium Residence L'Hévana opened in 2019/20 and brings a new wave of up-market self-catering to the resort. There are 95 one-, two- and three-bedroom apartments including 17 which are rated “exceptional” with private sauna and fireplace.

Price: ££

ROOMS FROM

£84^{pp/pn}

Check availability

Rates provided by Booking.com

L'Hévana is an up-market self-catering option in Meribel

Chalet Le Cedre Blanc

A comfortable chalet with six bedrooms on three floors, Chalet Le Cedre Blanc has a large living area leading on to a sunny terrace. Complimentary shuttles to the ski lifts are provided, and the town centre is a 15 minute walk.

Price: £

Book it: From £719, with Ski Total.

Chalet Le Cedre Blanc is a comfortable chalet with six bedrooms

Chalet Le Pousse Caillou

Sleeping up to 10 adults plus four children, Chalet Le Pousse Caillou is beautifully decorated in contemporary alpine style with open-plan living and kitchen area, outdoor hot tub and two family suites on the second floor.

Price: ££

Book it: Half board from £8,752 per week for the whole chalet, with Meriski. Excludes flights and transfers.

Chalet Le Pousse Caillou is beautifully decorated in contemporary alpine style CREDIT: ALTIVISUAL.COM

Booking.com rates above are guide prices per person per night, please note that packages can differ across accommodation. Owing to the current coronavirus pandemic, these rates may change. Please check the properties' websites for further information on what's included.

Unless stated otherwise, prices are per person, based on two sharing a double or twin room half-board for seven nights, including flights and transfers.